HAWAII DONATES $8,500,000 TO LIBERTY LOAN

concerns who by carrying their employees over a longer term than that required by the government have made possible to a large degree the splendid showing by Hawaii, which will doubtless redound to the prestige of the territory throughout the nation when results from the various states are published in the mainland press.

Robert Stever, chairman of the executive committee, thanked the various business houses, and especially the banks, for allowing their officers and employees to devote their time to the campaign. The committee wants to thank every person who was in any way connected with the campaign.

"And don't forget the stenographer in the office, and the office boy," said one of the committeemen. "The stenographer worked extra hours but received no extra pay. They all devoted their time wholly to the cause."

Much credit is due Charles Frazier and Charles Heiser, Jr., for their excellent work in distributing campaign posters and literature among the plantations on Oahu, and to A. S. Hayward, of Canton, N. H., and the various sugar agencies for distributing posters on the other islands.

It was pointed out this morning that the credit for the plan of employees to carry their helpers on the installment basis was due the Hawaiian Pineapple Company. During the first Liberty Loan, the pineapple company was the only firm in the islands to carry employees on the installment plan, and the contract drawn up by the Hawaiian Pineapple Co., E. J. Botts of von Hamm-Young, and J. L. Cockburn of the executive committee, is the one now in general use throughout the territory.

K. L. Barnes of the pineapple company announced this morning that 31 of their employees had subscribed to $6500 worth of bonds. During the first loan campaign the Hawaiian Pineapple Company subscribed to $4800 worth.

The Honolulu Iron Works have announced that their subscriptions amount to $10,200. The Theo. H. Davies Company have subscribed for $17,850 worth of bonds, while Canton-Nell have taken $4250.

Chinese bond purchasers have pledged themselves for bonds amounting to $30,050, through the Chinese-American bank.

The Boy Scouts made their final canvass early this morning, rounding up negligent subscribers who had failed to make their first payment on the bonds. All first installments had to be paid before noon today. The scouts did excellent work during the campaign, collecting nearly $45,000. They aided in distributing bond literature and securing pledges.

A generous response to the Liberty Loan call has been given by the staff members and employees of H. Hackfeld & Co., Ltd. The figures announced today by this firm are as follows:

Honolulu office, 36 employees... $20,900
Hilo branch, 24 employees... 1,950
Kailua branch, 10 employees... 850

Total... $23,700

The bonds were subscribed to under the central liberty loan committee's plan of the firm's assisting to carry employees not able to pay immediately for the full amount.

Oahu Railroad People Come Forward

The Oahu Railway & Land Company employees make a ready response. Two hundred and ninety-seven employees subscribed $22,750.

The response by the Japanese was especially gratifying, a large number subscribing, though many of them could not make large individual subscriptions.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 27.—Four billions of dollars in subscriptions for the Liberty loan was expected last night to be the total which will be reached this morning. Eleven million returns will then come in and the tabulating force will be further increased to segregate and list the subscriptions which it is anticipated will

JUDD COMMANDS 2ND BATTALION

Maj. Lawrence M. Judd, 1st Hawaiian Infantry, National Guard, has been named in command of the second or country battalion of that regiment—through orders issued at regimental headquarters.

Capt. D. L. Mackaye is named in command of headquarters company and becomes regimental adjutant, succeeding Capt. Frank J. Dougherty, who has resigned to accept a commission in the officers' reserve. Maj. Judd succeeds Maj. Charles M. Coster, who is placed on the unassigned list.

Details are being worked out at army headquarters for the big encampment of the national guard near Haleiwa, beginning November 9. Water will be secured from Haleiwa.

Bathing room on the beach will be ample, and this was one of the chief reasons for choosing the site for a camp. The soil is sand, covered with grass, making ideal camping ground, while a cool sea breeze strikes square upon the spot. Drill grounds are good-sized and will take care of all troop movements. A supply train will be run from Honolulu each day on the Oahu Railway to provide fresh provisions from the department quarter-master storehouses.

Until Attorney R. W. Breckons, who is still confined to his home with a sprained ankle, is able to get down to his office, no further steps will be taken in the matter of suit which will probably be brought by applicants in the last civil service examination who are protesting against the appointments of men whose average percentage showed less than 70 per cent. That the interest in the matter is gaining in momentum is evidenced by a letter from Lawrence Kalepou to the civil service commission. The letter is a general protest against the unfairness shown in making the recent appointments. "Candidly," the writer says, "it is my opinion that the committee has not only shown woeful lack of determination, but has failed in its discharge of public duties, and proved that it is not a fit body for maintenance."

The letter will be read at the next meeting of the commission.

LONG ILLNESS ENDS IN DEATH OF MISS STONE

17 SKIPPERS TO COURT FOR BREAKING RULE

Masters of Four Inter-Island Vessels Charged for Disregarding Military Regulations

Acting on the complaints filed by Captain L. B. Magruder, port captain, the skippers of the Inter-Island steamers Mauna Kea, Kilauea, Claudiene, and Kailua; the schooner J. A. Cummins; and twelve sampans, will be summoned to appear in police court Wednesday morning, October 31, to answer to the charges against them—that they have violated the port rules and regulations by entering Honolulu harbor one-half hour after sunset and before sunrise. The complaints were signed this morning by Second District Magistrate Alexander Larnach, and immediate action is being taken.

Captain Magruder alleges that contrary to the regulations imposed by the naval and military authorities for entering or leaving port, Captain A. C. Simerson of the Kilauea brought his ship in before the designated hour on the morning of October 8; that Captain W. G. Bennett of the Claudiene violated the rules on October 11, and that Captain Louis Self of the Mauna Kea broke the rules on the morning of October 5. The schooner J. A. Cummins, it is said, violated the harbor rules by entering port before sunrise on the morning of September 29.

The other captains against whom complaints have been filed are skippers of the sampan Ebesu Maru, and sampans numbered 150, 20, 223, 103, 248, 300, 287, 29, 17, 8, 178.

Penal summons have been issued on the strength of the complaints, and the skippers have been cited to appear in court Wednesday. This action, however, will not interfere with the schedule of the Inter-Island ships, as the captains will probably be represented in court by the corporation's attorneys.

WILL PAY HONOR TO DEAD SAILORS

perhaps only a coincidence that the date of the memorial service, October 28, corresponds with the number of the dead.

Another radio to Captain Clark gives the names of the ships sunk and the losses the service will commemorate, which, in brief, are: S. S. Aztec, April 1, one man lost; April 28, S. S. Vacuum, sunk by German submarine; Lieutenant C. C. Thomas and four men of the naval corps lost, July 31, the Montana, sunk by German submarine, 5 men lost; September 15, the Plautia, sunk by German submarine, one man lost; Lewis Luckenbach, sunk by German submarine, one man lost; October 16, U. S. Cassin, one man lost; October 16, Transport Antilise, sunk by German submarine, four men of the aeronautic detachment that landed in France June 5, buried in France. Others lost and not specifically mentioned bring the total up to twenty-eight.

Major F. J. Green, officer in charge of the draft, announced today that the names of the following four men have been recommended by cable to President Wilson as additional members of the Honolulu exemption boards:

Division No. 1—John Drew and John Guild.

Division No. 2—S. L. Marx and Alfred Eames.

W. H. Smith has been approved by the president as a member of the exemption board for Hawaii, Division No. 1, headquarters at Hilo. Mr. Smith succeeds Val Stevenson, resigned.

The quota for Hawaii is expected at any time, though it may not reach here until after the drawing next Thursday. It will be announced from the local draft office as soon as word is received from Washington.

Upon second consideration it has been decided not to send out special invitations, but to invite the public

FEDERAL JUDGE GIVES BIG FINE TO PANDERERS

Completing the first prosecution under the new law prohibiting the existence of questionable houses within five miles of army camps or posts, Federal Judge Polinder today morning sentenced Mrs. Clara Barr, colored, to pay a fine of $500 and costs.

Mrs. Barr was arrested several weeks ago on a charge of keeping a bawdy house in Kalihi. She pleaded not guilty and the case went to trial. A verdict was returned Thursday. A colored soldier was arrested with Mrs. Barr and charged with the same offense.

A matter of fact mind like Mrs. Moody's is a comfort to the person who has it, and a never ending delight to the person's friends. "I suppose you went to bed with the chickens while you were staying on the farm this summer," said one of the neighbors. "No, indeed!" replied Mrs. Moody, with much dignity. "They were very neat, quiet people, and the chickens slept somewhere at the back of the house."

A stout, baggage-laden old English gentleman was trying to make a hurried exit from a railway carriage. At the door he stumbled on the foot of a brawny Scot. "Hoots, toots, mon!" groaned the Highlander. "Canna ye look where ye're going? Hoot, man, hoot!" The burdened traveler slammed the door behind him and shouted through the window: "Hoot yourself! I am a traveler, not an automobile!"—Ex.

"Grocery butter is so unsatisfactory, dear," said Mrs. Youngbride, "I decided today that we would make our own." "Oh, did you?" said her husband. "Yes; I bought a churn and ordered buttermilk to be left here regularly. Won't it be nice to have really fresh butter?"—Boston Transcript.
